WHITE STALLION IN THE MOONLIGHT - Luman Winter

Magnificent Original Oil Painting Reproduced In Full Color As Giant Decorator Mural

BRINGS DRAMATIC NEW BEAUTY TO YOUR HOME

Giant panoramic murals are the latest decorator rage, bringing new drama and beauty to your home. This incredibly magnificent painting of the white stallion standing majestically in the luminous moonlight creates a feeling of depth and sweep that is breathtaking. More than a huge six square feet in overall size, this superb mural brings to your home the ideal proportions of the new "picture window" panoramas that are sweeping the country!

Unfortunately, it is simply impossible to show the full breadth of color and drama in this great mural from the small black and white picture here. Only when you actually see it can you fully appreciate its excitement and beauty.

OFFER WILL NOT BE REPEATED THIS SEASON

We urge you to order your giant mural now while the supply lasts. This superb, full color print is a sweeping 40" x 24", and we will send it to you for just $3.00 postpaid on full money back guarantee if you are not absolutely delighted with the new "window of beauty" it brings to your home. But hurry, order now. This offer will not be repeated.

ADDRESS YOUR LETTERS TO: NEW YORK, N. Y. 10022

Dear Stan and Roy, Hip, Hip, Hurray! X-Men #39 - what an issue! The cover was simply striking in the sensational Marvel tradition. The X-Men's new costumes are superb and really stand out, so please don't change them for a long time. The story plot and the awe-inspiring, action-packed artwork made this a spectacular issue which is only customary for the men at Marvel. Truthfully, you have just latched onto another X-Men fan. After all, with mags like #39 on the stands, you can't miss. I really mean what I said, so keep up the good work, group That's an order!
Bill Labrie, Box 246
Athabasca, Alta, Canada

Then far he it from us to disobey, Willie boy - but we would appreciate it if you could tell us whether or not you liked ish #39 - and don't dare keep us waiting. hear?!

Dear Stan and Roy,

Please don't have the X-Men wearing those costumes Jean made them in issue #39 They are beautiful, but each suit looks too different from each other. When looking at those costumes in the mag, it symbolizes to me that each X-Man is independent and fights by himself, while when they wear their look-almost-alike costumes, they seemed to symbolize one team fighting together. This is all I have to mention. Otherwise your X-MEN is perfect. Harvey Stabbe, 960 43rd St. Brooklyn, N. Y. 11219 Nuff said!

Not quite, Harv! Although you've brought up an interesting point - we don't really feel that the new costumes will have much effect on their ability to fight as a team! Just look at the Avengers! They haven't fared too badly against the forces of evil and look how individual each of their costumes is! But, if you really feel that strongly about it, we'll put the matter on a Bulipen ballot and leave the question up to Marveldom Assembled! What say thee, Marvel-Ites?

Dear Stan and Roy, Critical verdict, he says - sheesh! To my last letter you stated that you hoped I would like the new costumes. I den't - I love them! As soon as I looked at this hunk of paper glued together it no longer became just a comic book. This one particular book was enlightened by the flashing color of the costumes that almost blinded me. These mod threads have made history in the world of comies Talking about the costumes was just a warm-up. You haven't heard anything yet! Issue #39 was the most action-packed book I've ever read. The masterpiece kent my interest and my sense of curiosity at their highest level all through the book. So with my sincerest sentiments and regrets to Brand Echh, so long!

David Koester, 2227 Empire Joplin, Vo. 64801

But only till next lsh - right? Phew, next time you sign off, don't make it sound so final? You know how insecure your brainbustin' Bullpen can be! As for the X-Men's new threads, all we can say is we hope Jeanle doesn't decide to give up heroing to open a boutique - 'cause without her flair for fashion, our favorite mutants would probably be running around in dungareast

Dear Stan and Roy,

X-MEN #39 was another issue which shows that the X-MEN are not only the most unusual team, but also the greatest team. With Thomas and Heck at the helm, our merry band of mutants is reaching greater peaks of realism and vividness. Sure, there are mistakes such as how a guy who's encased in ice can talk so someone can hear him. the X-Men equal to the F.F. Don't run the cover by putting phrases like "New Costumes" on it because the mutic-addicts can tell right away that they're new, and it doesn't matter to the new reader. Give Jean a larger part in the X-Men. I'm glad Magneto isn't battling the X-Men any more because a steady villain tends to run down a strip. Long live Marvel Power!!

Ken Hutchins, 3154 Ammons Dr. Longview, Wash, 98632

We hope it will - almost as much as we hope you're not too upset by the fact that Magneto was back in this ish! Don't worry about him going steady with everybody's favorite mutants, though - 'cause we have it on the very best authority that the Tond will never let it happen! He wants to keep Maggy ready for really important foes - like Forbush-Man! (And if you don't believe it could happen, just latch onto a copy of NOT BRAND ECHH #8! It'll be on sale next month!)

Now hear this! Please keep all letters no longer than ONE PAGE! Have mercy, mellow ones!

Dear Stan and Roy,

X-MEN #39 was great. It met the high standards of X-MEN and of Marvel. I loved the new costumes, especially that of Cyclops. Even the lettering on the story was fantabulous. I liked the part where we discover that the Mutant Master is really an alien. X-Men is better now than it ever has been. I hope the Banshee becomes a sort of honorary member. The origin of Cyclops in the back of the issue was great. I think you should keep wonderful Werner on the origin tales. Keep the origins in the back of the book. X-MEN is now my fourth favorite comic — it used to be tenth. One question — how does Iceman throw those ice-snow balls through his gloves? Are there holes in the end of his gloves, or are the gloves porous, or what? So, until Honest Irv proposes to Marvel Girl, make mine Marvel!!

Craig Miller, 9115 Beverlywood St. Los Angeles, Cal. 90034

We'll try, Craig — but we hope you'll make yours Marvel even longer! After all, you never know to whom the Honest One will pop the question next! At his age, he's starting to get desperate! Now, on to your query! Icy can toss the iceballs with his gloves on because . . . but why spoil it for you! The long awaited "Origin of Iceman" starts next ish—and all will be made clear to you then! Don't dare miss it!

Dear Stan and Roy,

These new costumes of the X-Men, particularly the Angel's, are something one would expect to see only in the worst Brand Echh publication. I thought Marvel stood for superior artwork and stories aimed at a mature reader. If one is incapable of perceiving each X-Man's individuality unless each wears a totally different costume, one is not mature enough for a quality mag. Furthermore, you should not have to sacrifice quality to gain more adherents. A group of people that operates solely as a team, without other separate outside duties, should look like a team. Do the members of a football team wear totally different uniforms to show their individuality? No. sir! Their numbers and what they do is enough. I don't expect you to go back to the former uniforms as no one has ever had the courage to do so. All I expect is to lose faith Charles Bewersdorf, 5242 N. 24 St. in you. Phoenix, Ariz. 85016

Awwww, give us a break, Charlie! We all know that the Green Bay Packers would play just as well if they wore different colored jerseys — though it might make things a bit difficult for the quarterback! Actually, the reason we changed the X-Men's costumes was because a lot of readers have been demanding it for a long time! It didn't have anything to do with individuality — at least not at that particular moment! As for the future — well, just stay with us — 'cause we've got some senses-shattering surprises in store!

Dear Stan and Roy,

I wanted to write to you for quite a while, but felt a little embarrassed; as I happen to be the mother of five, as well as the proud possessor of an M.A. in English Literature. My 12-year-old son introduced me to the X-Men, and he has faithfully provided me with a monthly copy ever since I expressed my delight in them. I've found them literate, charming, and very entertaining, and I particularly like the way you contrast their normal lives with their extraordinary adventures. What a great bunch they would be for a harassed mother to have around the housel Pauline Deeley, 49 Whitney St. Sherborn, Mass. 01770

Could be, Mrs. D. — but what if they sided with the kids? Hooo boy, you'd have more problems than Ma Kettle baby-sitting for Bobby Kennedy! Anyway, we're glad you go for our swingin' super-sagas — 'eause a house without Marvel is not a home! Excelsior!

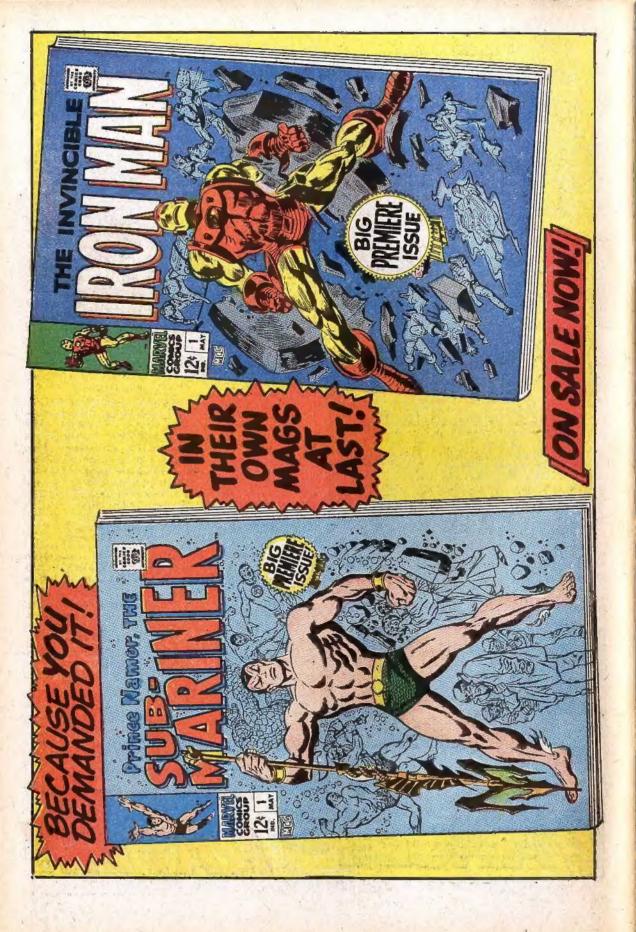

Dear Stan and Roy,

It will probably take you quite a while to come up with an issue of the X-Men that will top #39. Not only was the continuing running battle between the merry mutants and the marvelously malicious Mutant Master brought to an astounding conclusion (not once did the possibility of this helmeted hood being an alien flash through my mind), but X-MEN author Roy Thomas managed to cram more quality into a five page short feature than many comics manage to do in a full 20-page issue. To compliment you on the lead story first, it was indeed exceptionally good. Plenty of action - a Marvel trademark, not too much corny dialogue, and pages and. pages of frankly outstanding artwork - and that goes for both Don Heck and Werner Roth. The new costumes? Well, it'll probably take me a little while to get accustomed to them, but what I've seen is very good indeed, especially Marvel Girl's. In her old costume she, believe it or not, looked almost like one of the boys. With her new costume there wouldn't be any doubt in this regard if she stood behind a lead shield in complete darkness on the other side of the moon - and what healthy American lad of 18 in his freshman year at college would say nay to that?! As for "Lonely Are the Hunted!", allow me to applaud loudly. Cyclops is my favorite X-Man for many reasons - an excellent character with much potential still to come. Well, there's another unabashed bravo for the X-Men, my favorite Marvel comic. Monotony, sure, but do you want me to knock it off?!

Guy Lillian III, 311 Griffiths Hall, 2650 Haste St., Berkeley, Cal. 94721

Never — at least not for the next million years or so! Sure, we're modest and all that — but when you applaud, you can rest assured we're not gonna plug up our ears! Besides, when you get paid off in MMMS buttons, the kudos case the pain a little!

'We're looking for people who like to draw'

says Norman Rockwell

Today hundreds of men and women who never thought they could be artists are working at easels and drawing boards, making pictures and getting well paid for it. They all can thank a group of famous artists who have devoted much of their time and talent to helping others find success in art.

Some of the people the Famous Arilists have helped

Carl Kock was an 18-year-old apprentice in a Chicago art studio when he enrolled. Today he prepares ads for such companies as General Motors and Firestone—has won five gold medals.

Howard Sanden of Minneapolis took the Course while still in high school. He is now a successful artist-recently he and his wife traveled through Europe and the Middle East on important art assignments.

Paul Sullivan enrolled at 14. His Famous Artists training helped him work his way through college.

Kathleen Gironda of Indiana, Pennsylvania, was an 18-year-old salesgirl in a department store. She still works for a department store, but now it's as an advertising artist and fashion illustrator. With Famous Artists training James Ryan, formerly a clerk, has become an illustrator at Hughes Aircraft—and turns out a steady stream of well-paying free-lance artwork in his soare time.

Oregon housewife Helen Tryk lives 150 miles from the nearest big city. But she does fashion illustration, has her own studio, runs an art work shop, does portraits.

A plan to help others

It started over 18 years ago when a group of America's most successful artists—men like Albert Dorne, Norman Rockwell, Jon Whitcomb, Al Parker and Stevan Dohanos—met in New York City. They knew that all over America there were people who liked to draw who could be turned into good artists, Albert Dorne asked, "Why can't we give these people the training they need—including all the trade secrets and know-how we've learned over the years?"

Founding Faculty of the Famous Artists School

He suggested a new kind of art school—a home study art school—that would give talented people the best professional art training, no matter where they live.

The famous artists agreed. Taking time from their busy careers, they created a remarkable series of art lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. They illustrated their lessons with over 5,000 "here'show" illustrations. The lessons start from scratch and cover every skill a top artist needs. Finally, they developed a wonderful way to give each student personal correction and advice all through his training.

The famous artists with the School are not surprised at the success of their students. The opportunities open to successful artists today are enormous. The School continually gets calls from all over the country asking for practical well-trained students—not geniuses—who can step into full-time or part-time art jobs, And practical, thorough training is what the School offers.

Famous Artists Talent Test

To find others with art talent worth developing, the Famous Artists created a 12-page Talent Test. Thousands paid to take this test, but now the School offers and grades it free, Men and women who do well on the test—or offer other sufficient evidence of art talent—may enroll in the School, But there's no obligation, Simply mail the coupon below.
